

CHILDREN SPEAK UP AGAINST VIOLENCE

Children advocating, mobilizing, raising awareness, informing and communicating.

Sub-Saharan Africa: South Africa

Children preparing short video clips and sending them on WhatsApp, then sharing with social media and press. Save the Children has also collaborated with children's radio station in Johannesburg - young people have airtime to give advocacy messages and talk about violence in their homes during the pandemic.

Click here for Save the Children's participation tracker

