

CHILDREN USING RADIO TO ADVOCATE AND RAISE AWARENESS

Children advocating, mobilizing, raising awareness, informing and communicating.

Sub-Saharan Africa: Sierra Leone

In Freetown, Pujehun and Kailahun aged 5-18 years engaged local radio stations with nationwide coverage for three hours to advocate and raise awareness on children's education, health and protection, as part of their celebration of the day of the African child—the radio exposure reached over 4 million listeners.

Click here for Save the Children's participation tracker

