Asia and the Pacific: Nepal

In Nepal, Child Advisory Committee (CAC) members of Time to Talk! - a global campaign supporting working children to take forward child-led advocacy for improving their working conditions and eradicating all forms of child labour - trained other children on child rights.

On behalf of the Child Labour Orientation Day on the 30th of July 2019, the CAC CWISH carried out advocacy workshops in various schools. Their objective was to educate children on child labour, child rights, child protection and policies and laws related to child labour. Most of the sessions were facilitated by the CAC members themselves, while the supporting adults provided more insight into the subject matter when required. All of the children participating in the workshop were given the opportunity to share their ideas and help develop important key messages such as: 'There should not be any case based on discrimination'; 'Ensure strict implementation of laws against child labour and ensure strict punishment to perpetrators'; 'The family members should be made aware regarding child labour and its adverse effect on children'.
