

CHILDREN GIVING BACK TO THEIR COMMUNITIES

Children building capacities and researching

Sub-Saharan Africa: Kenya

Through recreation and education, standard foundation targets these young children within the community. These children come together, play together, have a sense of cohesion. As result they work together, play together, learn together to love their societies and give back to their Communities thus making a big difference.

Stardard foundation

