

EDUCATING CHILDREN THROUGH RADIO

Children building capacities and researching

Sub-Saharan Africa: Liberia

In Liberia, we are supporting education access for 48,000 out-of-school children under the USAID-funded Accelerated Learning Program (ALP) to mitigate education gaps during long-term school closures through an educational soap opera. Search has produced radio programs that include a COVID-19 focus and seek to educate children and parents on health protocols during the crisis.

Search for Common Ground

