

GLOBALLY, CHILDREN CONNECTING TO ONE ANOTHER

Children engaging and supporting their peers, including reaching the most vulnerable

Global

COVID has created opportunities for children to connect globally. Act2Gether activated a global campaign with 4 different phases: first encouraging children to take forward acts of kindness and sharing them with their peers, then global intergenerational dialogues, then conversations for all ages around different issues, and finally skills workshops based on children's demands and previous dialogues.

