

GIRLS ADDRESSING SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Children engaging and supporting their peers, including reaching the most vulnerable

Latin America and the Caribbean: Guatemala

In Guatemala 'Las niñas lideran' (Girls lead) an adolescent-led organization, started a campaign called "Cuéntalo" (Tell someone about it), founded on a 'girls helping girls approach'. Their goal is to encourage other girls to speak up about sexual violence, so they can learn that sexual violence is not normal.
