

YOUTH AND ADOLESCENTS SHARE HEALTH TIPS WITH EACH OTHER

Children engaging and supporting their peers, including reaching the most vulnerable

Latin America and the Caribbean: Uganda

Through the Bubaare youth association, youth and adolescents from different villages have connected with each other to share health tips and poverty eradication measures. They have also created and organized youth groups to work in a more permanent manner.