

CHILDREN ASSESS PUBLIC INVESTMENT IN CHILDHOOD

Children engaging with decision making

Latin America and the Caribbean: Brazil

Through Save the Children Brazil, children have been reviewing budgets and providing input, to better understand how government is investing in childhood. Children monitor their local authorities, evaluate their work, and give a special award to the authority ranked in last place.

Click here for Save the Children's participation tracker

