

GIRLS SPEAKING UP ON VIOLENCE IN THE HOME

Children engaging with decision making

Latin America and the Caribbean: Mexico

Angela, a 15-years girl, part of RedPazMx - a child-led network supported by Save the Children for over six years, spoke about specific concerns regarding violence in the home, and questioned the procedures when reporting a case of domestic violence.

Click here for Save the Children's participation tracker

