

CHILDREN DEMANDING LEGISLATION ON PROTECTING THEIR RIGHTS

Children Engaging With Decision Making

Middle East and North Africa: Pakistan

In Pakistan, children work directly with their schools and community to learn and implement advocacy for violence against children, including child marriage, FGM, child sexual abuse and exploitation, and child trafficking. Children are holding press conferences to demand legislation on protecting the rights of marginalized children, and following up on influencing positive change for their communities.

Society for the Protection and Rights of the Child (SPARC)

